

Dmitri is a profesional data consultant with 4 years of experience in Data Engineering, 2 years of experience in Automation and RPA, and 3 years of experience in SAP (ERP) development. He has a track record of designing and implementing innovative business solutions for diverse industries, including telecommunications, chemical, manufacturing, and healthcare sectors. My expertise in leveraging cutting-edge technologies and analytical tools has contributed to the successful execution of complex projects, driving efficiency, and delivering tangible results for clients. He is staying at the forefront of advancements, committed to digital transformation, and seeking to make a meaningful impact in a dynamic environment.